ABOUT CWY-JCM

CWY is an international nonprofit organization dedicated to the empowerment of young people. CWY collaborates with partners in Canada and around the world to create transformative learning experiences focused on building knowledge and leadership skills through participation in sustainable community-driven projects. For the next 10 years, CWY will focus on impact within the four key pillars: Empowerment and Experience for Indigenous Communities, Sustainable Livelihoods and Entrepreneurship, Empowerment of Young Women & Girls, and Environmental Sustainability

ABOUT "WELI"

WELI is a youth-centered and gender-responsive training and development project that seeks to increase economic empowerment and resilience for young women in the communities most affected by COVID-19 in Ghana and Senegal. WELI will empower young women through business development services to maintain their livelihood in response to COVID-19. Through E-Volunteering, qualified and passionate young Canadians will support the implementation and delivery of the WELI project which is being implemented by Africa Skills Hub (ASH) and funded in part by Global Affairs Canada (GAC). WELI seek to empower 6752 Adolescent Girls and Young Women (AGYW) in Ghana and 3750 AGYW in Senegal. 100 AGYW and new cooperative members will be supported to scale up entrepreneurship activities (palm oil production & food and beverage) in Ghana and more than 50 AGYW entrepreneurs (health and wellness) in Senegal

Canada World Youth is committed to equity in employment and diversity.

This posting represents an opportunity to realize our focus on increasing the presence of underrepresented groups in the organization, such as Indigenous peoples, visible and ethnic minorities, persons with disabilities, women, persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, and others who may contribute to the success of a diverse workforce.

We would like to thank in advance all the candidates for their interest in Canada World Youth.
Please note that only candidates invited to an interview will be contacted.
